Firefighters from Delton, Baraboo, Reedsburg and Kilbourn fought for several hours to contain a fire at Light-house Cove condominiums.

Top left: The fire attracted spectators as well as firefighters. Some even climbed to the roof of another Light-house building to watch but were ordered down by police.
